

This past weekend, the Speaking Bobcats of Ohio University competed at two tournaments hosted by Illinois State University and Bradley University.

At the Saturday Tournament, hosted by ISU, the Bobcats earned 208 points to place first in team sweepstakes, ahead of defending national champions, Western Kentucky University (171 points) and the University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire (142 points).

At the Sunday Tournament, hosted by Bradley U, the Bobcats earned 203 point for a second place finish behind Western Kentucky (240 points), with third place going again to the University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire (180 points).

The Bobcats finished the weekend with 411 points, tying Western Kentucky University for first place in Overall Weekend Sweepstakes.

Please join me in congratulating the following students on their recent success this past weekend:
